BOWMAN AS AN ENTERTAINER.

Robert O. Bowman was presented at the Masonic Hall last Thursday evening as the second feature of the Entertainment Course of this season. Bowman is but one man, not a very big one, either, physically, but when it comes to keeping a big audience interested and amused for an hour and a half, all by his lonesome, he is there with the goods.

Mr. Bowman has several sketches which he presents, all varied, all very attractive. From his introductory bow to the final "good-night" he is in touch with his audience by presence or by voice. He has these sketches strung on a thread of reminiscence and story, the telling of which keeps his hearers interested and amused from start to finish. It is a very difficult for a single (or married) entertainer to keep a crowd interested all evening, without break or intermission, but Mr. Bowman certainly does it. Our people were delighted with him.

The next number in the course will be the lecturer, Byron Platt, of whom more will be said later. He will appear Dec. 20th.

KILLING IN ELLIOTT.

A quarrel over a debt resulted in the shooting of Henry Evans by Ed Evans at Dew Drop Thursday night. On the way from church Henry Evans asked Ed Evans for a sum of money owed him by the latter. At this Ed said he could whip both Henry and his brother Charley and attempted to hit the latter, who knocked him down. When he regained his feet he began to shoot at Henry who had started to run. Two shots were fired, but only one striking the boy. This shot lodged results. After the report of the re-bet between the shoulders with fatal volleys the youth ran a few steps and fell. He died shortly afterwards. Elliott County Democrat.
